SUGAR.

We have chosen a sweet subject for a leader to-day, but it is one in which every once is interested, sugar, or, as a Mississippian would say, "short sweet'ans," entering largely into many of the necessaries, comforts and luxuries of life. Without it the mother cannot concoct pap for the baby, make a cake for Tommy and Mary to take to school with them, nor manufacture the pleasant "bersafters" for Sunday dinner, to say nothing of the more ordinary uses to which it is applied, of sweetening tea, toddy and coffee. Indeed, long use and habit has rendered sugar an almost indispensable article of household consumption, and one without which we would scarcely know how to get along.

In view of these facts it becomes a matter of very great importance to find a sufficient supply for general consumption, and at prices to enable all to get a reasonable share of it. The price of sugar, at present, is pretty high, and has been ever since the war, and many have found difficulty in procuring it in desirable quantity, and of using it except in the most economical manner. The presiding genius of the breakfast table often finds it necessary, in view of the fearful sinking down in the sugar barrel, to squeeze the tea spoon close to the side of the sugar bowl, when she is dishing out the family cups; and the lumps for the tea are made much smaller than they would be if "crushed" was two or three cents lower in the pound.

But bad as the chances are and have been for sweet tea and coffee, on account of the high price of sugar, they are likely to be worse for the time to come. The decrease in the cultivation of sugar cane in the Southern States, and the destruction of the sugar plantations in Cuba by the Revolutionists, will have the effect of greatly lessening the quantity of sugar below the demand, and a consequent rise in price must ensue.

What can be done to counteract the deplorable curtailment of our sugar rations? If there be a remedy available it ought to be seized upon, and, now is a favorable time to be thinking about it.

It is asserted that good sugar can be made from the sorghum cane, so easily cultivated in all the Southern States. We think this is not now an uncertain question.—Sugar has been made from the sorghum and that of very superior quality; we have seen some of it, and consider it equal, if not superior, to the unrefined West India or Louisiana brown sugars.

There is a method of manufacturing this sugar called the "Southern Process" that has resulted most satisfactorily. A committee of five intelligent gentlemen, appointed by the South Carolina Agricultural Society, after visiting the works of Messrs. Passmore and Wilhelm, at Greenville, South Carolina, and observing minutely every stage of the process of manufacturing syrup and sugar from the Black Imphee, a species of the Sorghum cane, grown in the vicinity of the works, declare themselves fully satisfied of the value of the process. They add:

"There is no doubt that a superior quality of syrup and sugar may be produced by this process (which is known as the Southern process) from the Black Imphee, grown on our own soil. We, therefore, take pleasure in recommending the process to the favorable consideration of the Convention. We believe that its adoption by the agriculturists of the South generally, would furnish a profitable branch of industry to our people, and add largely to the resources of the country. We have deemed it proper to make this report, inasmuch as in our former report we were unable to speak from our own observation of the value of the process for making sugar from cane grown on our own soil."

Last summer there was an Agent traveling in this State, selling rights to manufacture sugar from sorghum, under a process patented by a Mr. Beasley, and known as the "Beasley Patent," and some local agencies established; but we are not aware that any experiments were made last season owing to the fact that the subject was presented to the people too late to be put in operation last summer, and more, perhaps, to the fact that the necessity of some expedient to supply the deficiency in the supply of sugars was not then so fully apparent.

Mr. Robert Souter, at Kittrells Springs, who, we believe, became Agent for certain counties, can furnish information in regard to the Beasley Process, and can also give information in regard to the obtaining of seed, to any who may conclude to go into the business the coming season.

We believe that an enterprise of the sort would pay, for the reasons before given.—One establishment in each neighborhood, sufficient to grind the cane of the neighborhood and manufacture the sugar on shares, would not only make a fair return on the capital invested, but prove a means of diversifying the industry of the particular locality; provided it should be started early enough in the season to allow farmers to plant and cultivate their cane crops.

We invite suggestions and information on this subject to be laid before our readers. Who will respond?

PUBLIC MEETING IN HERTFORD COUNTY NORTH CAROLINA.

The citizens of this county assembled at Winton, the 29th of December, 1869, and on motion of T. R. Jarnegan, Daniel Valentine was requested to act as Chairman, and J. W. Perry as Secretary of the meeting. Through request, the Hon. Wm. N. H. Smith briefly stated that the object of the meeting was to express the sentiments of the citizens of this county, relative to the extravagant appropriations of the present Legislature, &c.

On motion of Mr. Jarnegan, the Chairman appointed Hon. Wm. N. H. Smith, Dr. R. H. Shield, Jno. A. Vann and T. R. Jarnegan to present resolutions for the consideration of the meeting. While the committee were absent, Mr. Jno. H. Jarnegan through invitation addressed the meeting in favor of universal suffrage and general amnesty. Favored an investigation of the finances of the State; opposed repudiation unless it was proven that our bonds had been fraudulently used, that it would be better to sell the State's interest in the railroads and redeem the bonds at their present low figure than to increase the taxes, and thus destroy the energies of the people and force many of our best citizens to leave the State. Favored a liberal system of internal improvements as soon as the people recovered from their recent misfortunes; but thought the large appropriations by the present Legislature, very unwise and had seriously injured the credit of the State.—Did not approve of the suspension of the habeas corpus except in extreme cases. Regretted the present condition of the State University, considered President Pool had been very unjustly censured. Mr. Jarnegan closed his address with an eloquent appeal to the Legislature to rescue from pending ruin the credit of their gallant State, and transmit to the future a history as illustrious as steadfast, and worthy of a noble people.

The Committee reported the following resolutions which were unanimously adopted:

We the citizens of Hertford assembled at Winton, learning with regret the present financial condition of our State, deem it the duty incumbent on all citizens without regard to present or past political associations to express our disapprobation of the profligate and wasteful expenditures of the present General Assembly; therefore

Resolved, That the present high taxes are not in accordance with a State of peace, and that they have a ruinous effect on the energies of an industrious people.

Resolved, That the very large appropriations by the present Legislature to carry into effect such an extensive system of internal improvements so soon after the close of the war between the States was impolitic and unjust.

Resolved, That while we are in favor of a liberal system of internal improvements at the proper time, we do condemn as unwise and unnecessary the issuing of such large amount of State bonds to irresponsible parties.

Resolved, We are of the opinion that our bonds have been fraudulently used and that there ought to be a thorough investigation into the facts thereof.

Resolved, We consider the old State debt valid and ought to be paid.

Resolved, We are utterly opposed to the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus as being contrary alike to the spirit and letter of organic law and uncalled for by any exigency in our affairs.

NEW YEAR'S CALLS IN RUSIA.—The practice of making New Year's calls is very rigidly followed in St. Petersburg, as it is in some parts of this country, but there is a way in which one may avoid it, and at the same time hold his position in society. He has only to give five or ten roubles to some recognized public charity, and have the donation acknowledged in the papers on New Year's morning. He may then stay at home at his ease, and his friends will take no offense. Every New Year's day the St. Petersburg papers contain two or three columns of the names of persons who have thus exempted themselves from the demands of society. Those who hold receptions check off their acquaintances on these lists, and everybody is satisfied. The ladies are saved the trouble of receiving calls, and the gentlemen that of making them. If this custom could be adopted in this country it would secure a handsome donation to charities, avoid many a headache on the next morning, save an expenditure of much money for wines and other refreshments, and a large outlay for carriage hire and new coats. It costs many people from twenty to fifty dollars to make New Year's calls, and here is a way whereby an exemption may be bought for five. The reception of company involves a much greater expense and if a money substitute, to be charitably disposed of, could be adopted for failure to receive as well as call, it would make a desirable addition to the treasury of benevolent societies.

The Richmond correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says:

Neither the clerk of the Senate, nor the clerk of the House of Delegates of Virginia has yet applied for his salary. The explanation of this is that these officers feel that their position is very insecure, and fear that a demand for money might be met by a counter demand on them to take the test oath. It has already been illustrated in the history of Virginia reconstruction that a person may be permitted to hold an office and exercise its duties, yet be denied the pay for his services allowed by law; and the clerks of our General Assembly prefer to wait quietly until the State is re-admitted to the Union, rather than to run any risks by an application under the present regime.

A movement is in progress at St. Louis, Mo., to hold a world's fair in that city in 1871. A World's Fair Association is to be formed, with a capital stock of $1,000,000.

DR. LIVINGSTONE—HIS WORK NEARLY COMPLETED—AN INTERESTING LETTER.

The Bombay Gazette, of November 20, publishes an interesting letter from Dr. Livingstone, dated May 30 last, and received at Zanzibar by Dr. Kirk, Her Majesty's Consul, on the 24 of October last:

UJIJI, May 30, 1869.—My Dear Doctor Kirk:—This note goes by Musa Kamsala, who was employed by Koarji to drive the buffalo-cows hither, but, by overdriving them unmercifully in the sun and tying them up to save trouble in herding, they all died before he got to Unganyembe. He witnessed the plundering of my goods and got a share of them, and I have given him beads and cloth sufficient to purchase provisions for himself on the way back to Zanzibar.—He has done nothing here. He neither went near the goods here nor tried to prevent their being stolen in the way. I suppose that pay for four months in coming, other four in going back would be ample, but I leave this to your decision. I could not employ him to carry my mail back, nor can I say anything to him, for he at once goes to the Ujijians, and gives his own version of all he hears. He is untruthful and ill-conditioned, and would hand off the mail to any one who wished to destroy it. The people here are like the Kilwa traders, haters of the English. Those Zanzibaris whom I met between this and Nyassa were gentlemen, and traded with honor. Here, as in the haunts of the Kilwa horde, slaving is a series of forays, and they dread exposure by my letters. No one will take charge of them. I have got Thani bin Suellim to take a mail privately for transmission to Unyanyembe. It contains a check on Ritchie, Steuart & Co., of Bombay, for 2,000 rupees, and some forty letters written during my slow recovery.—I fear it may never reach you. A party was sent to the coast two months ago. One man volunteered to take a letter secretly, but his master warned them all not to do so, because I might write something he did not like. He went out with the party, and gave orders to the headman to destroy any letter he detected on the way. Thus, though I am good friends outwardly with them all, I can get no assistance in procuring carriers, and, as you will see, if the mail comes to hand, I sent to Zanzibar for fifteen good boatmen to act as carriers, if required, eighty pieces of meritano, forty pieces of kimtra, twelve farasalas of the beds called jamsin, shoes, &c., and I have written to Seyd Majid, begging two of his guards to see to the safety of the goods here into Thani bin Suellim's hands, or into those of Mohammed bin Sehib.

As to the work to be done by me it is only to connect the sources which I have discovered from 500 to 700 miles south of Speke and Baker's withjhef Nile. The volume of water which flows from north latitude 12 south is so large, I suspect that I have been working at the sources of the Congo as well as those of the Nile. I have to go down the eastern line of drainage to Baker's turning point. Tanganyika, Nyige Chowambe (Baker's?) are on water, and the head of it is 300 miles south of this.—The western and central lines of drainage converge into an unvisited lake west or south west of this. The outflow of the south-west to Congo or Nile, I have to ascertain. The people of this, called Manyema, are cannibals, if Arabs speak truly. I have to go there first, and down Tanganyika, to come out unaten, and find my new squad from Zanzibar. I earnestly hope that you will do what you can to help me with the goods and men. £400 to be sent by Mr. Young must surely have come to you through Fleming & Co. I am, &c.,

DAVID LIVINGSTONE.

GENERAL WOOL'S ESTATE.—The evening before the veteran General was stricken down with the illness that closed his eventful career, he made a most interesting statement to the editor of the Troy Whig, which conveys a practical lesson, and shows how easy it is to become rich after obtaining the first dollar, if one is prudent and economical. "I never made but $20,000 in my life," said the General emphatically, "but I always kept that at good interest." On our expressing surprise, he went on to explain. It seems that at the close of the war of 1812 the General found himself terribly wounded, but about even with the world in a pecuniary point of view. Shortly afterward the government sent him to the far South and West on a special mission connected with military affairs, and for five years he traveled over mountains, and through the almost trackless wilderness, and accomplished his difficult mission, as he did, to the entire satisfaction of the Government. He had not drawn a dollar from the Treasury, except, for actual expenses, and at the end of the five years the Government owed him $20,000, which was then paid. General Wool was then about 35 years of age. He died at about the age of 88. Now, let the reader take this $20,000 which, at compound interest, will nearly double every ten years, and in the fifty years intervening between the time of its receipt and the General's death, he will find that it will amount to just the General's estate, to wit: $840,000.

A BILL TO LICENSE GAMBLING IN CALIFORNIA.—The San Francisco Bulletin of December 18 says:

A bill has been introduced in the Legislature of this State, by Senator Green, and referred to the committee on public morals, ostensibly, "to restrict gaming" by granting a legal license to follow it. The bill provides that "any person may procure a license" for carrying on any of the usual gambling games upon paying to the sheriff in any county polling 2,000 or more votes, $450 quarterly; in any other county, $250. Each license must locate and describe the room in which gambling is to be carried on, and will be good for only one of the games specified, which are faro, monte, roulette, lansquenette, rouge et noir, rondo, or any banking game played with cards, dice or any other device, whether the same be played for money, checks, credit, or any other representative of value. A separate license must be procured for each separate game. Gambling without license is made punishable by a fine of not less than $1,000 nor more than $3,000, or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than three nor more than twelve months, or both such fine and imprisonment; and the same penalties are attached to renting rooms for unlicensed gambling.

Louisville is excited over the supposed discovery, by a couple of strangers—one an elderly physician and the other a notorious burglar, of a large amount in gold, and gems secreted in a deep pit on the bank of the Ohio river. According to the story, this partnership has been seen digging by night at the river side, and a few days after they ceased operations, the mysterious doctor very mysteriously disappeared, while the known thief knowingly stayed in the city until he was chased out. The money is supposed to have been the fruits of a murder committed upon a wealthy Spaniard in Louisville, twenty-five years ago, and the thief alluded to is said to have displayed $60,000 in gold in a house of ill repute in the city a few days ago. What was the entire amount got out of this Golconda we are not told.

A GAME OF "ALL FOURS"—HENRY CLAY AND JOHN QUINCY ADAMS PLAYING FOR A PICTURE.

[From the Charleston (S. C.) Courier.]

In the summer of 1838, one of our editors was an attache of the South Carolina Railroad delegation to Lexington, Ky. On attending a barbecue given by the citizens of that place to Mr. Robert Y. Hayne as President of the Louisville, Cincinnati and Charleston Railroad, designed to connect the Queen City of the South with the Queen City of the West. The delegation consisted of Mr. Chelf King, Benjamin T. Elmore, R. G. Mills and Dr. Hardy, of Asheville, N. C., directors of the railroad company, who were joined by Paul Fredmons, of Georgia; Mr. Ben Taylor, of Columbia, S. C., and Mr. Yeadon, of the Courier.

General Hayne, who had been on an extensive railroad tour, met the delegation at Lexington on his return southward. The barbecue came off with great eclat and enthusiasm, General Hayne, of course, making an eloquent speech, in reply to a complimentary toast, and Robert Wickliffe, Jr., gracing the occasion with an admirable address, redolent of South Carolina and her past history. Robert Wickliffe, Sr., a great landholder, agriculturist and breeder of fine cattle, furnished from his herd a half-breed buffalo, which was barbecued or roasted whole for the occasion.

After the barbecue Mr. Clay invited the party to dine with him at Ashland, his beautiful country residence and rich cattle farm. The dinner was epicurean in viands and wines, and the ice cream, made entirely of pure cream, from his own dairy, of course with sugar added, was exquisite in taste and coolness.

At table one of the guests called attention to two beautiful paintings on the mantlepiece, whereupon Mr. Clay, pointing to one of the paintings, said archly, and smiling, 'I will tell you how I came by that painting, provided (bowing to one of his guests) it does not go into the newspapers, as it involves an anecdote at the expense of my old friend, Mr. Adams." He then proceeded thus: "Mr. Adams, Mr. Gallatin and myself—three of the commission for negotiating a treaty of peace with Great Britain, in 1813—were at Ghent, boarding at the same hotel. One morning we went to a great exhibition (or sale) of paintings and each of us purchased one. On returning to our quarters our painting were sent us. Admiring Mr. Adams' purchase very much, I said to him, "Mr. Adams, I would like to win your painting from you; I will take mine against yours at a game of cards.' 'Agreed,' said Mr. Adams. 'What game will you play?' said I. 'All Fours,' said Mr. Adams. We cut for the deal; I won it; dealt; turned up Jack, and scored high, low, Jack and the game, and the next hand counted out and won the stake.

"Then turned to Mr. Gallatin (who had purchased a fine painting of the Virgin Mary) and said, 'Mr. Gallatin, I would like to win your painting from you in the same manner as I have won that of Mr. Adams.' 'No, sair,' said Mr. Gallatin, in his broken English, 'I did not win the Veergin so, and I shall not loose her so.'"

The company were all highly amused at the anecdote, and at the manner in which Mr. Clay narrated it, fully coming up to his reputation as a raconteur. The cream of the anecdote was that Mr. Adams, a staid and demure gentleman, should have not only assented to play cards with Mr. Clay, but should have proposed a game of "All Fours," at which Mr. Clay was a perfect adept. The anecdote, in due respect to Mr. Clay's admonitory proviso, has never been in print, but now that the illustrious parties concerned have gone to honored graves we feel at liberty to give it a place in our columns.

A RELIC OF THE PAST.—A COMMISSION FROM GEORGE WASHINGTON.—We have been permitted to see and copy from the original in the possession of a family in this city, the following commission, which bears upon it the genuine signature of George Washington, the first President of the United States. The document is rather neatly printed upon heavy paper. It bears the test of age well and both the ink in which the blank is printed and that used in writing the names, dates, etc., both retain their original hue remarkably well. The commission reads as follows:

GEORGE WASHINGTON, PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

To all who shall see these presents greeting:

Know ye, that reposing especial Trust and Confidence in the Integrity, Diligence and good conduct of John Brown, of North Carolina, I do appoint him Master of a Cutter in the service of the United States, for the Protection of the Revenue; and do authorize and empower him to execute and fulfill the Duties of that Office according to Law; AND TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said office with all the Rights and Emoluments thereunto legally appertaining, unto him, the said John Brown, during the Pleasure of the President of the United States for the Time being.

In testimony whereof I have caused these Letters to be made Patent, and the Seal of the United States to be hereunto affixed. Given under my Hand, at the City of Philadelphia, the nineteenth day of October in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety six and of the Independence of the United States of America the twenty first.

GEORGE WASHINGTON.

GREAT SEAL. By the President:
TIMOTHY PICKERING,

PITTSBURG.—Pittsburg people never have fresh air, except when out of town. They live on coal smoke and floating cinders.—The people breathe smoke, eat smoke, chew smoke, and carry it loose in their pockets. Little boys and girls stand on the corners with wet brooms and sponges to wash people's faces for five cents. Everybody is of a color in Pittsburg. At the post office window the clerk distinguishes the people by certain signs, it being impossible to see their faces for the layers of coal dust and smoke.

Every one wears mourning in Pittsburg. A barber once went there to color hair and whiskers. He more'n busted in a week! Men kiss each other's wives in Pittsburg, unable to tell which is their own only by the taste. People feel their way by door knobs, and read by raised type. A man once stood in his room with the window raised, changed his shirt nine times in four minutes, and only got a clean one on him when the window fell by accident and kept the smoke out.

Bedclothes are unknown in Pittsburg.—Leave the window open and sheets of smoke settle upon you like newspapers from a machine press. Men carry lanterns to see to shake hands. When looking at a watch to see the hour, it is the fashion to light a match. They make broadcloth by hanging a spider's web out till filled with smoke.—They roll the smoke, sweetened, into sticks and sell it for liquorice!—Louisville (Ky.) Sun.

EARTHQUAKES.

OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN SOUTH AMERICA—SUPPOSED UNDERGROUND COMMUNICATION BETWEEN THE OCEANS.

The Academy of Sciences of Paris has received a highly interesting communication from M. A. Rojas, of Caracas, on the phenomena which in various parts of South America occurred simultaneously with the terrible earthquake of the 13th of August, 1868, which convulsed the whole of Peru. The information collected on this subject by the author is exceedingly striking. On the above mentioned day, between half past three and four o'clock P. M., the waters of the Atlantic receded from the western coast of the island of Granada, and suddenly returned, rising above the accustomed level. At that same hour, at Bolivar, the Orinoco rose fully three feet; and at that identical time a traveller, riding along the banks of the Arauca, a tributary of the former river, all at once saw the water raise and reach higher up than his stirrup. At a point corresponding to the opposite of San Fernando the Apuro suddenly overflowed, covering from eighteen to twenty feet of ground on each side; immediately after it returned to its old bed, but the water kept bubbling for some minutes, and then subsided to its pristine tranquility. At the same moment the inhabitants of Juan Griego, north of the Island of Margarita, opposite Cumana fled to the highest point of their village on seeing the waves of the ocean rise to the altitude of twenty feet and more, advancing to the very doors of the dwellings. The waters, however, speedily retired without doing any damage. The same phenomena occurred in the Port of Rio Caribe, on the side of Cumana. The level of the Juruarf is said to have risen at the same time, but trustworthy particulars are wanting. From all these facts, observed at points widely distant from each other, M. Rojas concludes that at the time of the great earthquake of Peru there was a general upheaval of the earth's crust throughout the northern part of South America. The volcanic axis of that continent passes precisely between San Francisco and Bolivar, extends westward of La Margaritta and ends at a short distance from the smaller West India Islands. It coincides very nearly with the great circle of the pentagonal network designated as the primitive one of Greenland and Chile by M. Elie de Beaumont. This axis M. Rojas considers as exercising a decided influence on the seismic phenomena which occur from time to time in those islands, as well as in Venezuela and Colombia, and in support of this opinion quotes several remarkable instances of synchronism, which, in his opinion, prove the existence of a great subterranean fissure, establishing a communication between the Pacific and the basin of the West Indies.

THE DEAD OF THE YEAR.—In the necrological list of the year of 1869 it seems as if the losses of our country have been unusually heavy. Two at least of the present active generation of American statesmen—Rawlins and Stanton, Fessenden has passed away leaving a vacancy in the Senate which will long be felt. Of political leaders less eminent in official position we have lost Henry J. Raymond; and among politicians of a past day, whose influence has measurably passed away, Time has been unusually busy. Ex President Pierce, ex-Attorney General Bates, ex Secretaries Bell, Guthrie, Walker and Toucey, ex-governor Fitzpatrick, of Georgia, Pratt, of Maryland, and Pickens, of South Carolina, and that curious relic of a by gone political era, Joseph Ritner, ex-time Governor of Pennsylvania, also ex-Governor Grason, of Maryland. These are among the best known of the host who have been gathered to their fathers during the past twelve months.—The loss of European statesmen has been much smaller, in England, Lord Derby and Lord Stanley of Alderley; in Spain, General Dulce; in Russia, Prince Menschikoff; in France, Marshal Niel and Troplong; in Turkey, Fauad Pasha, are the most distinguished of the dead, and few of these exercised a vital influence upon the government under which they lived. From the rolls of the army and navy we shall miss henceforth at home the names of Old Ironsides and General Wool; abroad the British General Lord Gough, Admiral Sir James Gordon, who fought a British fleet up the Potomac in 1814, the French Marshals Niel and Regnault, St. Jean d'Angely, the famous Russian soldier Menschikoff, and the veteran Jomini. Art deplores the loss of Grisi, Berlioz and Overback; science mourns for Hungtenburg, Reichenbach, Jukes and many lesser lights, and the charities of two hemispheres will feel the taking away of George Peabody. In literature, although the list is long, very few names of real eminence are found in it.—When we have mentioned William Carleton, Professor Conington, Frederick S. Cozzens, Peter Cunningham, Alexander Dyce, Lamartine and Ste. Beuve, we have called over all the most illustrious.—New York Tribune.

Mrs. Anna Cora Mowatt Richie has written a letter from London, in which she says that she has heard a member of Lady Byron's family acknowledge that Lady Byron made the same statement to him about Mrs. Leigh which seems to have been made to Mrs. Stowe. We also learn from Mrs. Ritchie that Colonel George Gordon De Luna Byron has arrived in England, and laid before Lord Wentworth his claim to be recognized as the legitimate son of the poet. Colonel Byron was an officer of Fremont's during the war, and his story has been extensively published in the American press. He says that Lord Byron visited Spain during his youth, and there contracted a secret marriage with a Catholic lady of good family, but deserting her and becoming enamored of other fair faces, he determined to conceal an alliance which was legally not binding. This American Colonel avows himself the fruit of that union. He further declares that Lady Byron discovered the secret by means of some correspondence between the poet and his Spanish bride, and this discovery was the true cause of the famous separation. Colonel Byron seems to have furnished no proof as yet to substantiate his romantic tale, and Lord Wentworth accordingly defers receiving him with open arms.

SPANISH GOLD.—The New York Journal of Commerce, in general very accurate, says:

A gentleman who makes it his business to keep well posted on the moves of Spanish diplomacy in this country is the authority for the assertion that Mr. Sidney Webster (son in-law of Secretary Fish) received some months ago a retaining fee of $42 000 from Mr. Roberts, Spanish Minister at Washington, and since that date $35,000 more, and that these large sums were paid to Mr. Webster "in view of his relationship and probable influence with the Secretary." Mr. Webster has been, it is well known, acting for some time as attorney for Spain, his legal manœuvres to procure the release of the gunboats being his principal feats in that line. Nobody believes that Secretary Fish had anything to do with the Spanish gold, or that it influences him, but it is unfortunate that, if true, any such "retaining fee" should have been received by any one closely connected with him.

TUCKER HALL.—We called in at Tucker Hall, yesterday afternoon, to see the "Museum of Living Wonders," now holding a levee there, and for once we can say that the advertisements and "small bills" approach very near the truth in describing these truly wondeful individuals.

Miss Anna Swan, the Nova Scotian giantess is as large and tall as represented; well proportioned, of agreeable features and converses with intelligence and ease.

The Circassian beauty, Miss Zobiede Luti, is very pretty, below the medium height of ladies, intelligent and of very agreeable address.

Mons. Joseph converses freely in somewhat broken English, and is a gentlemen of cultivation. He is 48 years of age, fully up to the advertised mark of 8 feet, high and well proportioned. He served a number of years in the French Army.

There is no humbug in any of the above; whether the same may be said of the "wild Australian children," we are not able to say; they are, however, very great animal curiosities, and well worthy of visiting, whether they came from Australia or not.

The exhibition is well worth the price charged for admission, 35 cents, and we recommend old and young to embrace the opportunity of seeing this combination of human wonders before they leave. This afternoon and to-night closes the exhibition.

FIRE.—An alarm of fire was sounded about 8 o'clock last night, which proceeded from the burning of a wood shed on the premises of the old State Bank, and in rear of the Episcopal Church. But for the exertions used by the "Hooks" in tearing down the building, and the constant supply of water by the "Buckets" on the Episcopal School room and some other buildings near they would probably have been burned.

We heard nothing in regard to the origin of the fire. No very serious loss.

THE CITY ELECTION, came off yesterday. It was quietly conducted, so far as quarreling or fighting is concerned, but there was a great deal of "pulling and hauling," and it is stated by those familiar with the City that there were a large number of illegal votes cast. We have received no report of the votes polled, but the Radicals carried all the Wards for Commissioners, and re-elected Capt. Harrison for Mayor. This was anticipated, as there was no organized opposition to the Radical nominees, and a large number of Conservatives declined to vote. It will ever be so while those really interested in the subject of the city government, manifest the apathy and indifference, or, as we have heard it characterized, the cowardice, they do.

TELEGRAMS.—The lateness of the hour at which telegraphic dispatches commence coming, makes it necessary for us to go to press without them, in order to save our mails. The noon market reports are generally about the same as those that come at night, so that it will make no very great difference in that respect.

We have just time to state that cotton was quoted last night at 25¼ and quiet.

PERSONAL.—We had a call last night from Mr. J. R. Randolph Dickson, correspondeing editor of the Decatur (Ill.) Daily Magnet, eleven days from San Francisco, Cal. Mr. Dickson is a native of Orange County, in this State. He came through from California by the Pacific Railroad, and describes the trip as reasonably pleasant, the snow at no point being more than 18 inches, and easily cleared off by the cow-catcher of the engine.—Mr. Dickson will remain in the State on a visit to his parents and friends for a few weeks.

THE SMITHFIELD HORSE THIEF.—We learn that, owing to the insufficient bail taken by the Magistrate, in the case of Snead, accused of horse stealing in Johnston County, the Sheriff rearrested him on Saturday last and lodged him in jail. Snead, it seems, had expected something of the sort, and kept himself concealed, and was found by the Sheriff safely ensconced between the bed and mattress in a room in his own house.

When it was known that he had been again arrested and lodged in jail, the negroes began to arm themselves and threaten to release him by force, and threatened also to kill the Sheriff, who was forced to summon a large number of citizens for his own protection and to prevent the jail being broken open by the black mob.

Sheriff Hill is represented as having acted with prudence and firmness in the whole affair, and is entitled to the thanks of the community for the straightforward manner in which he has discharged his duty to the State and the people.

Up to Sunday no attack had been made on the jail, but the negroes were still arming and breathing threats to liberate the prisoner, and a collision would be no unexpected event.

But as these negroes are all good Republicans and members of the league, we suppose it is all right, and no militia will be sent to keep them within the pales of the peace.

PUBLIC MEETING IN CASWELL.

The people of Caswell are requested to meet at the Court House in Yanceyville on Saturday the 8th of January 1870, to consider the state of public affairs, and especially to express their sentiments in regard to the Bill now pending in the Legislature to place the State under military rule and clothe W. W. Holden with despotic power.

MANY CITIZENS.

December 30, 1869.

THE HILLSBORO MURDER.—We noticed last week, the brutal murder of Reuben Blalock, at Hillsboro', on the night of the 25th December. A jury of inquest was summoned and sat with closed doors for two or three days in investigating the affair, and during the investigation certain facts were brought to light which led to very strong suspicion against certain parties, one of whom has already been arrested, as will be seen by the following extracts from a letter received from a friend at Greensboro'.

"Bob Gunn, a colored man, apparently about 30 years of age, was arrested here on yesterday morning as the perpetrator of the Hillsboro tragedy.

Gunn had arrived here on the day after the murder and robbing, walking from Hillsboro'. He mentioned to some of his colored friends in social conversation that he left Hillsboro' because he expected they would have a fuss down there on account of a man having been killed. Several days afterwards, on yesterday one of these colored friends told him he was suspected of the murder, whereupon Gunn manifested a very strong desire to go and see his friend Nelson Gorrell (col.) and started ostensibly for that purpose. This colored man watched him and observing that he failed to stop at Nelson's house, immediately informed Deputy Sheriff Reese of the fact. This vigilant officer started in pursuit and upon coming within proper distance, bailed. Gunn gave leg ball; a chase ensued, in which Gunn was captured. The authorities at Hillsboro were telegraphed and sent up a couple of officers who identified him as a suspected individual, and returned with him to Hillsboro.

Gunn heretofore a very bad character, colored men did not show any sympathy with him, and those instrumental in his arrest acted praise worthily."

Another suspected party has been seen in Raleigh, and officers are on the look out for him.

Such murders as that of Mr. Blalock are seldom long concealed, and we have no doubt the perpetrators in his case will be apprehended and punished.

HALF RATE MESSAGES.—We call particular attention to the following announcement by the Western Union Telegraph Company, which evinces a most commendable spirit of liberality towards the public:

The Western Union Telegraph Company will receive Messages at and for all Stations of their lines, East of the Mississippi River and West of the Province of New Brunswick, for transmission during the night, at one half the usual Tariff Rates; provided, however, that the tolls on any message at half rates shall not be less than twenty cents.

Half Rate Messages are required to be written upon Half Rate Message Blanks, which can be obtained by application at the offices of the Company.

Messages to be transmitted at Half Rates will be received at any hour during the day, between 8 o'clock A. M. and 10 o'clock P. M., at all offices which are open between these hours, and until 10 o'clock P. M. at Stations which receive Night Press Reports.

The Company receives messages to be transmitted at Half Rates upon the express condition that it shall not be liable for errors or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery of any message, beyond the amount received for sending the same.

A Wonderful Southern Discovery.—In the South where Liver complaint and billious diseases prevail to so great an extent, there has long been felt a need of a medicine that would act specifically and promptly on the Liver, restoring it to its normal functions, and at the same time be safe from after effects, and yet so simple that it might be used by any one. It is claimed that DR. TUTT'S VEGETABLE LIVER PILLS supplies this want. They act directly on the Liver; their constant use will not injure in the slightest degree the most delicate constitution. Females at any period may use them with great benefit, and realize great relief from the distressing nausea which they experience at certain times. These pills are not recommended as a universal cure all, but simply for diseased Liver, and those maladies which follow a derangement of that important organ, such as Dyspepsia, Headache, Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, Costiveness, Piles, Jaundice, Sour Stomach, Ladies Heartburn, Chills and Fever, Foul Breath, Restlessness at night, and Flatulency. These invaluable pills may be found in every Drug Store of any note in the South and West.

A WOMAN SHOOTS HER SEDUCER.—A special dispatch to the Pittsburg Commercial, dated at Ironton, Ohio, Tuesday, says that on that day a young man named Pres. Baker, charged with the seduction of Elizabeth McQuigg, was shot and killed by her. Immediately after the shooting she gave herself up to Esquire Matthews. Her brother, John McQuigg, was also arrested, charged with the same crime. Both were committed to jail. The girl's story is that she waited for him to make her the only reparation in his power, which he has refused doing. Hearing it rumored that he was going to be married, she determined to compel him to do her justice. Her brother and herself met him. She asked him what he intended doing. He replied, "nothing." She then told him he must go with her and marry her at once. On his refusal to do so she fired two shots, one taking effect in his breast. He lived long enough to say to his father that it was the brother, John, who shot him. The girl persisted that it was her, and that she alone ought to suffer. Public feeling is divided as to the justice of the killing, and nothing can be said until all the facts are brought out on the trial.

THE VIRGINIA CONTESTED ELECTION CASE.—Before Lysander Hill, register in bankruptcy, on Tuesday, testimony in the case of Charles Whittlesey, contesting the seat of Hon. Lewis McKenzie, member elect of the House of Representatives from the seventh congressional district, was begun, and after the introduction of some documentary evidence, O. C. Whittlesey, T. A. Stoutenburgh and G. S. Miner were examined in reference to Mr. McKenzie's course in the city council of Alexandria and the House of Delegates of Virginia prior to the war, the object being to prove that Mr. McKenzie's speeches and votes were in aid of the confederate cause, for which purpose the official proceedings of the council, and a speech purporting to have been made in the House of Delegates in 1861, were produced, and evidence taken to substantiate their authenticity. The whole evidence will go before the committee of elections of the House.—Alexandria (Va) Gazette.

It is said that immediate measures will be taken to place Mr. Stanton's family in a comfortable pecuniary condition. Mr. Stanton died, leaving little or no means beyond the house the family live in, and three of the children are under fourteen years of age. A meeting of several of his intimate personal friends has been held, at which it was determined to place the sum of $100,000 to the credit of Mr. Stanton's family by New Year's Day. President Grant on Monday sub-bribed $1,000 for this object. So long as Mr. Stanton lived he steadily refused to permit his friends to do any act of the kind.

Blondin got stuck six yards from the landing place while recently crossing a theatre with a velocipede on a tight rope. The women screamed and fled from the house, but an attendant lassoed the performer and drew him in without hurt.

MEETING IN PITTSBORO'—CITIZENS OF CHATHAM RALLY!

There will be a meeting of the citizens of Chatham, at the Court House, in Pittsboro', on Saturday, 8th January, 1870, to consider the bill now pending in the Legislature, and other matters affecting the county.

It is hoped that Gov. Brocker, Gen. Jackson, Mr. Manning, Maj. York, J. G. Rencher, H. A. London, Esqs., and others will address the meeting.

MANY CITIZENS.

POLYGAMY SLAUGHTER.—The Corinne (Utah) Reporter, after copying an item from the New York Evening Post relating to the mortality among the Mormons, offers the following remarks:

We are sorry to say that the Post's information is too true in regard to the mortality among Mormon children. It is not, however, very well informed, or else wishes to draw it very mild, for instead of some of the boxes of large hearses like Heber Kimball's, burying only forty-eight children, we can show the Post polygamous grave yards of one family, as they call them here, that will foot up nearer one hundred and forty-eight. As this is certainly the healthiest climate known to tourists and explorers, equally and modified as it is the year round, by the salutary influences of the Great Salt Lake, it is an easy matter to point to this mortality evil—it is polygamy, and nothing else.—Utah Whig.

The World's Washington correspondent says that New Jersey men are pressing the claims of their State for the judgeship vacated by Grier's resignation and Stanton's death. No candidate is yet developed, but ex Senator and State Attorney General Frelinghuysen is the likely man. The correspondent adds that the Executive recommendations, seconded by Schenck and Butler, to put off financial action till next year was to prevent a split in the party; also that Trumbull will push his bill to prohibit Congressmen interfering in appointments. The candidates for President are opposed to repealing the tenure of office act, because it would enable Grant to use patronage to elect himself, or help his candidate.

BODY OF AN INFANT FOUND.—The city scavenger yesterday morning, while depositing a load, the usual collection the night previous, beyond the limits of the city, discovered the body of an infant among the collected filth. Of course there was no opportunity for ascertaining where it came from but the discovery points to another of those cases of infanticide which have become so common over this very "enlightened" country.—Wil. Journal.

In the early days of Western emigration an intelligent Irishman, known as Pat Deegan, settled on the Kentucky side of the Ohio river, where he built a little dock and supplied steamboats with wood. The place was called Pat Deegan's Landing. It was soon shortened into "Pat Digan's," then into "Paducgan," and finally to the euphonious name which now appears on all the maps, Paducah.

And $5,000 ready to pay a loss of No. 34,161, so soon as the party authorized to receive the money appears.

The Company has been well tested throughout the State, as to its promptness in paying her losses, reliability, &c.

DIVIDENDS PAID AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR, AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

Its ratio of expense to income is extremely low. This may be seen by reference to the Official Reports for 1868. For example:

EXPENSE ON THE $100 RECEIVED.

KNICKERBOCKER,	$16,84
EQUITABLE,	17,44
NORTH AMERICA,	21,16
BROOKLYN,	21,09
UNIVERSAL,	27,24
JOHN HANCOCK,	18,27
THE NATIONAL,	63,48
THE ÆTNA,	13,41

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It issued more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 589 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed total assets amounting up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 13,337 new policies, more than any other Company except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars, and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested net assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."
